“ Dennis, I don't know that you will remember me. When we were little (11-12) and living in East Camden we played baseball and football with Nicky and Frankie. I remember to this day your father pulling up in his Bonneville every once in a while and giving us money to go get a soda. I will always remember what a nice and kind man he was. When I came to your house your Mom was the same way. They always took the time to make a little kid (me) feel important . Both your parents were special to the point that I still remember them 50 years later. I saw your Dad's obituary and had to let you know how sorry I am for you and your family's loss.

“ Dear Morrone family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ To My Dear 'Sister' Linda,
Words cannot express enough how sorry we all are that your Dad has passed away..but it is times like this, that words are not necessary. Words cannot take away your sadness or your grief. It is the love and the wonderful memories of your Dad and your Mom that will get you through this time of sadness. Linda, you and Dennis were blessed with the most wonderful parents. I can attest to that because they were like my 2nd parents and I loved them both very much. The silver lining in all of this is that your Mom and Dad are together again, holding hands. They are floating on a cloud up in Heaven smiling upon you and Dennis and your family...they both are very proud of you all and have loved you so much. You and me have been through so much together over the last 46 years and I want you to know that whenever you need me, I will be here for you. May God Bless Your Dad and Mom as they are reunited in Heaven. I love you! Carmela xoxo
