“ We are sorry to hear the sad news about Dot DiRaimondi. This lovely lady lived a few houses down from us. When walking my dog in the evenings, Mr. and Mrs. DiRaimondi were a familiar presence in nice weather. They were always sweet to smile and wave hello from their porch. It was a comfort to have them nearby, as longtime residents on Mill Road. The DiRaimondis were good neighbors, and this is a big loss for our neighborhood. We send sympathy and blessings to her husband Charles and beloved family.

“ Dot has been our across the street neighbor for the past 29 years plus. You could always see her and her husband on the porch with their beloved dog Scooter. They have been so good to our family in many ways and we treasured her friendship and conversations when bringing our dog Heidi over after her walk to visit her and letting her have the run of the house until ready to go home. Charlie and Dot have been like second parents to myself and my husband and we enjoyed their company. Dot treated my grand children like they were her own never missing a Christmas card or a special treat at Halloween. She will be dearly missed by my husband and myself. Our deepest sympathy to her family and friends . We love you Dot. Vince & Lorry
