

Drein Lorraine McKernan

May 21, 1940 - August 14, 2019

Drein Lorraine “Jackie” McKernan (nee Kline), 79, passed away peacefully on August 14, 2019 with her family by her side. Dear wife to the late Leo J. “Slip” McKernan. Loving mother to Leo McKernan Jr., Kathleen Canum (Will), and Lorraine “Lori” Hoey (Casey). Nanny to 10, great grandmother to 7, and honorary grandmother to the Morrison Family.

She spent her formative years growing up in Cape May County, NJ. She then made her way to Norristown, Pennsylvania where she became an ‘excellent’ waitress, and landed her wonderful husband Slip! She left the hospitality field to start a family and stayed home with her children until the late 70’s. She then stepped into the corporate world and retired in 92’ from being a corporate customer service manager. Entering semi-retirement she became a Realtor and front desk motel manager in the area of where she grew up, back to Cape May County. Phasing out of semi-retirement and into volunteering, she stayed very busy. She was a member of the VFW, Coast Guard Auxiliary, and an avid church goer. She volunteered with Hospice, Reading to the Blind, and with numerous Church groups. She loved her family, her pets, her friends, taking photos, and writing poetry (when she found the time!). She was lively and colorful so leave your dreary dark, black, gray best at home, and come celebrate with lots of color!

A gathering of friends and family to celebrate her life will take place on Saturday, August 17th at Givnish of Marlton from 11 to 12pm with a memorial service beginning at 12pm.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to The Masonic Charity Foundation, <https://www.njmasonic.org/>, American Cancer Society, Cancer.org or The Burlington County Animal Shelter, https://burlingtoncountynj.formstack.com/forms/animal_shelter_donations.

“ My condolences to Drein's family. I attended school with Drein in Cape May County from 8th grade to 12th grade and have many fond memories of those years. She was a very kind, fun, memorable classmate and I have thought of her often over the years and wondered where she was living. Now she is in her heavenly home. Praying that the family is comforted by this thought and their memories.

“ Drein was a very generous and loving person. I met Drein as a friend of my Mom, Fran Guinan. She was a good friend to my Mother. We had great times when we visited, playing cards with BamBam in our laps, and making Dale laugh. We talk about Drein every time we drive by her former home and smile at the memories. We will always miss her and are so glad to have known her. Fran Guinan, Kathy Manley, Bridget Guinan.

“ Bam Bam's wish is that everyone soon remembers only happy loving memories of his most wonderful mum. He's always thankful for being rescued and hopes every dog can be loved as much as Drein loved him. Every butterfly he sees will remind him that she is still near.

“ *She stepped in an became my adopted mom when I lost my mom. She was never to busy to lend a hand if you needed her. She will be missed
But I will have great memories that will last forever.*
