Edmund B. DeLussey passed away peacefully at home on April 30, 2021. Edmund was also known as Chief DeLussey, or just “Chief”. Edmund was a 34-year veteran of the Cinnaminson Police Department. His police career took him through the ranks from Patrolman in 1964, to Sergeant in 1974, Captain in 1979, and he finished his tenure as the Cinnaminson Police Chief from 1989 until he celebrated his retirement in 1998. Throughout his impressive career in law enforcement he consistently set a standard of excellence for others to follow. Edmund was also a proud veteran of the United States Marine Corps, a 1976 alumni of Glassboro State College (BA), and a graduate of the FBI Academy 1978 and received a Certificate Degree from the University of Virginia. In 1991 Chief DeLussey joined the esteemed BCC Hall of Fame. Edmund completed all of his degrees while working for the Cinnaminson Police Department.

“ We've been friends with Ed and Mary Ellen for over 20 years since we met them on a bus trip to Canada during which we enjoyed his good humor, warmth and easy-going ways. Our friendship with them continued since then, getting together with our other friends to go out to dinner, shows and other outings regularly.

One of our fondest memories is that of joining them for a weeklong cruise to Bermuda 10 years ago, during which we had a very enjoyable time exploring the island, sharing meals and enjoying shows. We will miss his gentle manner, genuine affection for his friends and concern for others. He was a genuinely pleasant person. May his memory be a blessing for his family and friends.
