

Edward J. Becker

August 9, 1943 - January 5, 2023

Edward James Becker passed away peacefully on January 5, 2023 at Harmony Village in Cherry Hill.

Born in Philadelphia, PA on August 9, 1943 to Anthony S. and Agnes R. Mammarella, Edd was 79 years old. He was a resident of Cinnaminson since 1970 but his heart was always in Maple Shade where he had grown up throughout his childhood years.

Beloved husband of 55 years to Jean M. Becker. Loving father of James A. Becker (Elizabeth A. Hahn) and Jennifer M. Becker-Doane (Timothy S. Doane).

Cherished grandfather of Ethan James Doane and Joshua Thomas Doane.

Brother to Mary Catherine Mammarella (Anthony DeAnnuntis), Joseph September Mammarella, Frances Ann Mammarella (Chris Pietrafitta), Susan Virginia Mammarella (Wayne Urffer), the late Leonora Rebecca Jacoby (Mark Jacoby), the late Palmina "Pam" Agnes Mammarella (James Gallagher) and the late Angela Rose Mammarella.

Edd was the patriarch to eleven nieces and nephews, and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Edd attended Villanova University where he earned a degree in Accounting. He became a Registered Municipal Accountant, Public School Accountant and Licensed Public Accountant. Edd began his career at Edmund D. Bowman and Company in Collingswood, NJ and then served as the Director of Business at Camden County College in Blackwood, NJ.

Edd had 30 years of experience in New Jersey municipal, school and non-profit accounting. Edd was a member and past executive board member, officer and president of the Registered Municipal Accountants Association of New Jersey.

In 1980, Edd ventured on his own as an independent accountant/auditor and enjoyed the operation of his business from his family home. Edd performed many certified audits throughout his career - the City of Absecon, the Brigantine Board of Education, the Cinnaminson Township Board of Education and Cinnaminson Township, the Holly Shores Girl Scout Council, the Margate City Public Library, and the Borough of Newfield, just to name a few.

His son James started to work with Edd when he was in high school and as of the mid-1990's was working with his father full time. Eventually they became partners in 2000 creating Becker Management, LLC. James and Edd spent many wonderful years working together and serving businesses with bookkeeping and payroll services as well as providing individuals and businesses with tax preparation. Edd retired in 2018 from the business which James proudly continues to run from his home in Philadelphia, PA.

Working from home gave Edd the opportunity to be involved with his children's activities as they grew up. For both his children, Edd spent time coaching many baseball and softball teams as well as attending various other sporting events, choir concerts, drama/plays and basically supporting anything which his children had a passion for in their lives – their passions were his passions. Even into their adulthood, Edd & Jean continued to attend their children's events such as shows/concerts for James' many bands, following Jennifer's many adventures as well as attending various events for his grandchildren such as football games or karate graduations.

As his passions, Edd enjoyed playing golf, bowling and watching various sports on TV. As an alumni, Edd loved to watch Villanova basketball games and was an ardent fan of the Eagles and Phillies. But, overall, he just loved spending time with his beloved wife, Jean. Their travels and adventures together were a shared love. From trips to Amsterdam, river cruises through Germany and France, trips with friends to the Grand Canyon, cruises with family to Alaska, family adventures at their timeshare in Virginia - Massanutten, golf played on many famous courses such as Pine Valley Golf Club and the Kapalua Bay Course, to visiting friends whom had moved out of state, they loved to spend time together but also to spend their time with other friends and loved ones.

A gathering of family and friends will be held Friday, January 13th from 6-9 p.m. and Saturday, January 14th from 9-10:15 a.m. at Givnish of Maple Shade, 600 East Main Street.

Edd's funeral Mass will be held at St. Charles Borromeo Church, Branch Pike and Pomona Road in Cinnaminson beginning at 11:00 a.m.

Interment will take place at Lakeview Memorial Park following Mass.

If so desired, memorial contributions may be made to any charity of your preference. Edd would want you to follow your heart and contribute to an organization which holds a special meaning.

“ Mr. Becker, or "Big Becker", as we called him, was an absolutely wonderful man. I knew him since the early 1990's and we immediately clicked, most likely due our similar political views!! He was a huge supporter of our band, and he will be sorely missed. Truly one of the great ones!!

“ Ecclesiastes 3:9-14

I do not know Edward J. Becker, or his wife. “I know there is nothing better for men than to be happy and do good while they live.” I know Jennifer Doane. “He has made everything beautiful in its time.” Jenny done good...so I could live (also) and be happy. “He has also set eternity in the hearts of men...God does it so that men will revere him.” “Yet they cannot fathom what God has done from beginning to end.” I know and fathom there were at least a couple happy times for Mr. & Mrs. Becker: “a time to be born...” (and born again...and again). I thank God for Mr. & Mrs. Becker, their life, their families; because I know and fathom, there was a time for a (specific) purpose under Heaven - “a time to heal...a time to embrace.” To all Beckers and extended families; you done good! Keep it up.

A fellow pilgrim and brother in Christ - Jonathan & Judie Van De Venter (and extended families)

Pax vobiscum.
