“ Back when President Eisenhower was in the White House, Betty and I were high school sweethearts in that Philadelphia River Ward neighborhood known as Port Richmond. It was the beginning of a 64-years friendship that continued up to the day of her passing. Good night, dear friend, and may the angels sing thee to thy rest.

“ I graduated with Betty in 1960. But I really came to know her in the years she organized our reunions. She always went above and beyond to make the special with her committee. But my favorite memory is when I called her about one of the reunions she offered her home for me to stay at during the reunion as I was coming from a long distance away. Betty you showed all of us what LF taught us about caring. May the angels come to guide you to heaven. RIP Your sister Joanne Boyle Giard.
