I didn't know Elma very long, but what a woman! She was so full of life! She was beautiful inside and out! A little secret I will share..... The first time I saw her at the VFW I thought she looked just like Mrs. Roper, (from Three's Company!) I would take that is a complement! Pretty pretty lady! She will truly be missed...she was a firecracker! But she is with her beloved husband now, whom she fiercely missed and loved! RIP Elma! That spark of yours will live on!
