“ From: Wanda Bryan

Eric was the best brother that a sister could have. We really had some great times together. Our parents thought the world of you too...they were always so proud of their little boy.

As an uncle you loved your nieces and nephews, and they loved you right back. Until we meet again in heaven, we will miss your grin, and your smiling face. Our deepest sympathies to sister in law Judy, Eric Jr, Al, Denise, and their families.

Love,

Wanda, Jerry, Wanda Ann, Kevin, Jordan, Johnny, and Joey.

“ Aunt Judy, Denise, Bob, Eric, Al and family, We are so sorry for your loss. Uncle Eric was a big part of our family and was a member of what I called "the four", which consisted of Uncle Eric, Aunt Judy, and my mom and dad (Bill and Rose) who were friends for over 50 years and constantly together. Whether it be holidays, lunches, or long rides to the shore, "the four" were always out together enjoying life. Uncle Eric was not just a life long friend, he was a family member and like a brother to my father. He was a good person who loved life, family and friends. We will forever miss him!
Love, Rosie, Bill and Rose.

“Guys, I am so sorry for you loss. I have know the Palaits for probably 50 years. Long time. I remember when you guys moved from Ditman st in Philly. We have always remained good friends and always will. Me and my brother Bill, Eric(Jr.) and Al had the great idea that we would ride our bikes down to see the Palaits. We were very young and didn't make it far. Pensauken I think? We thought we were half way! Lol. Big Eric came to the rescue. In the middle of the gas crisis, he drove up, grabbed the bikes and said, let's go. He understood that it was important for us to come down and see them. Whenever the Palaits were in Philly for a Christmas party or visiting family, they would call and let us know, so we could spend some time together. True friends always. We may not see each other as often, but the love I have for the Palait family is the same, and always will be. You will be missed Eric. Love you guys always.

“He had a great smile and laugh...he was genuine and made you feel special and was always was so happy to see you. He used to make such a fuss over my daughter Corinne saying that she was a Selena Gomez twin. I'll never forget when Denise and I were younger and getting ready to go out for the night to Wildwood and we were doing our makeup. He would say to my Aunt, “Judy, the girls are putting on their war paint to go out” War paint! That made me laugh so hard and stuck with me. I say that same thing to Corinne when she's getting dolled up. He always was there to help with anything you needed and never thought twice about it. He was a true gem. I am a better person for having him as an Uncle. Although our family will miss you here on Earth, we know we will see you again in heaven. My deepest sympathies to my dear Aunt Judy, and my cousins Eric, Al, Denise, and their families. Love you all, Suzi

Eric was a great brother. We had so many good times on his boat in Tuckerton when the kids were little. Then came the barn and the ponies! Again, great times! He was always so willing to lend a helping hand and so quick with a smile and a laugh. I will miss you greatly, Eric. My sincerest condolences to his wonderful wife, Judy and their children, Eric, Al and Denise and grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Until we meet again...Love always, Elly XO
