“ So many memories so difficult Express feelings at this time for a brother who would give the shirt off his back for a friend . Although we were separated by miles we had some Good conversations & visits. Especially on common visits to Mom & Dads Upthacreek estate. The long summer vacation trips full of memories. We are so disappointed that we cannot be there for your service 1/17. Our thoughts and prayers are with Kim. You will always be in our memories.

“ Eric and I have been friends since the late 80's, a better friend and a better man I couldn't hope to meet. I miss him already, and I wish there was something i could do, say or write to ease your pain Kim, but I too am at a loss.

Godspeed my friend, watch over us and say hi to your folks.

“ I did not know you in person, but I got to know you thru your wife, Kim and your Facebook photos which I thoroughly enjoyed. Thank you for sharing a part of your spirit and love for what you saw through your photo lense! May you rest in peace.

“ Eric was known here at work for his quiet way, big smile, and great sense of humor. He was a just an all around good guy and there will be a hole in our team that will never go away. We are all blessed to have known him for time we have and he will be missed.

“ Eric was a kind, loving, gentle man who was a loyal and giving friend to many. My husband Mark was one of those people. They had their ups and downs thru the years but were always there for one another. He could take a photo like no other I personally admired that about him and I loved to hear him laugh, he would throw his head back and laugh so loud. Eric will be sorely missed by many. God speed to our friend we will see you at the rainbow bridge when it is our time.
