“ Frank was my foreman at PECO and a friend in my life for 20+ years. He taught me the value of tradition and of a good work ethic. From his contagious laugh at his own jokes to his fighting spirit and support for his fellow employees he was an inspiration. I often, if not always, use him as an example to teach others of what good looks like especially when I talk to the younger generation about work ethic and friendship.

He will be sorely missed....
