“ Uncle Frank was one of the finest men that I had the pleasure of knowing. I was his flea market buddy and yard sale partner for many years. He taught me so many good things in life as a young bride. I learned how to food shop for the bargains and buy those things only when it counted . He was Jennie,s right arm man and did everything 100%. He had hands of gold. There wasn t anything he could t fix or make a part for. My boys have very fond memories of him too. Always with a smile and a surprise flea market find for them every week. He showed so much Love without saying a word !. In our young lives Uncle Frank played a very important role in our family and I had the pleasure of telling him how much i loved and admired him as a husband and a Man last year. Rest in Peace Uncle Frank, you certainly earned it❤️. My heartfelt condolences go out to Carol and Frankie and their families. Gone but Never Forgotten....Love, Diane Cervone-mullen and Boys
