

Frank J Gangemi Sr

August 2, 1922 - July 19, 2014

GANGEMI - Frank James Gangemi Sr., of Beverly NJ, passed away peacefully on July 19, 2014. He was 91 years old.

Son of the late Salvatore and Josephine Gangemi (nee Bertino, Zacchei). Frank was the beloved husband of the late Josephine Gangemi (nee Venuto), loving father of Frank J. Gangemi, Jr. and his wife Colleen, of Haddonfield, NJ, Richard S. Gangemi and his wife Nancy of Burlington, NJ, and the late Judith L. Fattorini and the late John Gangemi. Dear Grandfather of Diana Haas of Texas, Amanda Sausen of Maryland, Kelsey and Nicholas Gangemi of Haddonfield, NJ, Angela and Joseph Gangemi of Burlington, NJ, Jodiana and Anthony (Tony) Fattorini of Virginia, and James Fattorini of Maryland. Great-Grandfather to Connor DiBatista of Burlington, NJ.

He was predeceased by his brothers, Samuel, Joseph, and James Gangemi and his sister Mary Nanni. He is survived by brother-in-law Anthony J. Venuto of Edgewater Park, NJ, dear sister-in-law Vita A. Gangemi of Mount Laurel, NJ, and step-brother Nicholas Zacchei and his wife Shirley of Delran, NJ. Very special and favorite Uncle to beloved niece Joanne Kurlecki and husband Al of Beverly, NJ, and special Uncle to beloved niece Deborah Nanni and nephew Dennis Nanni. He has many loving nieces, nephews, relatives and friends and a loving extended family at Virtua Rehab Center in Mt. Holly, NJ.

Frank loved and endlessly followed sports, especially the Philadelphia teams, (Phillies, Eagles, Flyers, 76ers). Frank was a proud veteran of WWII. He served with distinction from 1942 – 1945 as a Radio Man First Class aboard the USS Winslow, a Porter-Class Destroyer in the North Atlantic.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass at Jesus the Good Shephard / St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, 524 Warren Street, Beverly, NJ, 08010, at 10:30AM on Friday, July 25. Burial services will take place at 9:30AM (before the Mass), at Beverly National Cemetary, 916 Bridgeboro Road, Beverly, NJ, 08010.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Frank's memory to www.woundedwarriorproject.org.

“ To the Family of Frank:

Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away your memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.

*With all my Love and Prayers,
His "Daughter" (as Frank would call me)*

“ Uncle Frank Gangemi. Wikipedia needs to have a page. Webster's dictionary needs to create a definition. He my in opinion will always be the gentlemen that I looked up to in awe and amazement. No matter what situation I found myself in he was there for me with soothing solutions and encouragement. I never felt he ever looked down on me but always treated me as equal, something that's hard to come by in the generation I was raised. He was more like my brother than my uncle. I couldn't express my love for him if I lived another hundred years. My wife Glenna & I shall miss you always.

“ My favorite memory is coming home from work when Aunt Jo was our "Nanny" for 11 years and Uncle Frank would be in the backyard with Collin teaching him how to swing a golf club (he was 4 years old!). Also when the kids would go to his house and tell me that "Uncle Frank eats Aunt Jo's meatballs for breakfast!!" Rest in peace Uncle Frank, I know you're up there with Aunt Jo and she's smiling.

“ My two favorite memories are making his favorite dish and tryitng to get it exactly like he and Aunt Jo used to make. Our early morning chats when I would call him on my way to work and he would answer the phone, Morning Glory because he knew it was me. Unc I will miss you very much - I love you! Niece Joanne.
