“ My buddy Frank was sick, I found out late. My heart goes out to Lowell and Susan and all the daughters and grand-kids and great-grand kids. Frank was a private sort of guy, but we developed a real positive friendship. He was like a Psychologist to me when I would fret about snowstorms or talk about that leaning tree in the backyard. No lie, I often tell Frank, "Man, I don't know what I'll do without you here." We would joke about things and Frank never seemed to mind my calls, quite the opposite. I will sincerely miss this uncomplicated, "old-school" working class, good-natured friend. To all the family, may your time of grief be comforted by God Thank you Frank, gonna miss you, Tom Marvin

“ Uncle Frank was such a wonderful man. He will be missed dearly. My favorite memory of him is how he always teased my mommom at holiday meals. She was always so happy when he was around. God bless you Uncle Frank. Rest in Peace. Love, Deanna

“ Uncle Frank, what can I say. Holiday meals will never be the same. My mom is already missing you calling her up and tormenting her. You were a great Uncle and wonderful brother! Love Dorothy and Dawn.
