“ I don't think George was too happy to have a Cowboys fan in the family but we enjoyed some light ribbing over the years. Thanks to George I got to experience some great hockey games and became a fan of the Flyers. He also kept me set up with books by my favorite authors while he was with S&S. I also learned to enjoy a good steak, thanks to Sunday night dinners, and I appreciated the generous pieces of garlic he stuffed in them! George, you will be missed. Love, Lori.

Thanks, Lori. He loved you, too, Cowboys fandom and all, LOL!

As a Cowboys fan - I completely understand. Not every one in the office can root for the Eagles! George is a great man and always did right by me as an employee. He taught our department the art of transportation. Sorry for the loss and for what the family is going through. Healing prayers are being sent to the family.
