“ *Dear Cousins and other family: I am saddened but comforted that he does not have to suffer any longer!! Have such fond memories of Uncle Herm and Aunt Mil and know they are probably doing a duet in Heaven. Love you all and sending prayers and comfort your way. “ Marcy, Sue, Steve and Scott, My deepest sympathy to the cousins. I will always have such wonderful memories of your Dad and know how much he was loved. Have such fond memories of all the fun celebrations and laughs over the years and the wonderful voice he had. Will keep you all in my prayers. Sorry I won't be there to give you each a hug. Love, Janice (Parsons) and Don Esselman

“ Oh the memories of Herm's voice as he sang in church and directed the church choir. He had such a wonderful voice, a great sense of humor, and an even bigger heart. You will be missed. Thoughts and prayers to the family.

“ I met Herm and Mil Bard when I was the organist at the Moravian Church. Herm was the choir director, patient, always with a sparkle in those eyes, quite the gentleman, and oh.....that wonderful tenor voice of his. I am so sorry to hear of his passing.
