Thank you Linda. I have many memories of sharing breakfasts at the diner with my Mom. She loved going to the Penn Queen and seeing all of her wonderful friends there.

“ My family was lucky to have Bill and Isabell Rafter as our neighbors. They were the best. Our family loved them, and Isabell was my mother's dear friend. Isabell was such a kind, generous and energetic person. A brilliant seamstress and tailor, she made the only dresses that ever really fit my awkward teenage torso. She loved her family and was devoted to them. Her bright spark will be missed by all who knew and cared for her. Rest in peace, dear Isabell.
