“ To Aunt Patsy, Jimmy, Barbara and all the Dohertys, Please accept our sincere condolences on the behalf of myself, Kara and our kids. I have fond memories of Uncle Jimmy, especially from Long Beach Island when I was young and used to go surf fishing with him. He was a very special, accomplished person. Uncle Jimmy was also a great character, freely spoke his mind, and had a excellent sense of humor. My parents were very fond of him and I can remember Uncle Jimmy stopping by our house on Hancock Street many times when I was little. As an adult, I got a kick out of arguing with him as he was always very confident in his position (and generally right). I will miss him. Sincerely, Bernie Vaughan
