“ My heartfelt condolences go to Ann, Becca, Megan and their beautiful families. You all are in my thoughts and prayers each day and I know Jimmy is in heaven and looking down on all of you. It has been hard to see the struggles and pain he has had to endure these past years but he is now at rest. No family could have done more for him!

I will always remember our "Thirsty Thursdays" the Eagles games we watched at each others houses when they played, And ;how about the day they won the Super Bowl!

But most of all I will never forget the nicest, kindest, most helpful, man I have ever met.

Heaven is a better place to have you there Jimmy, and I only hope they have jelly donuts there!

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of our dear friend, Jimmy. There are so many memories we shared with Jimmy but I will never forget going to Green Bay to watch the Green Bay Packers and the Eagles play The Eagles won with a score of 17 to 14. And many beers after that. We will miss Jimmy everyday and hold the memories in our hearts forever. Jimmy was truly my brother in every way. Love Dan and Kate
