Today is and will always be one of the saddest days in my life and the lives of our entire family. As you keep an eye on us from above you know how much you are missed. You will never be forgotten and will forever be missed every day of our lives. Keep up safe from above and remember you are loved. Bless you children and keep them safe. Receive a hug and a kiss from me as I think about you in some way every single day. Tell mom I love her and I hope and pray that you and her are at peace.

I made it through Thanksgiving Day only because you were there with me. You gave me the strength to join my loved ones .

I miss you so much it hurts my every being.

I remember the many Thanksgiving days we celebrated together .....and I am saddened

Your absence has left a void in my life. As I continue this journey that you have left for me to complete, I ache for you.

You are so missed that I am consumed with thoughts of you every single day.

I love you "My Ladybug", Love will never die.....

You were always my life and will continue to be my life.....until we meet ....

“ Janisa,

It's still hard to believe that you are gone. I think about you at least once a day every day and I hope and pray that there is some truth to the saying that someday we will meet again because the opposite would be unbearable. I hear your voice in my head everyday and I focus to continue hearing it cause I want to remember it every day of my life. You were too young to leave this life and your passing was so not fair. I hope your children remember you or are reminded about the good mom that you were. Juju does and always will because he knew you and always talks about you. You were the apple of his life and still are. He misses you more than words can say and he misses the kids. You would be so proud of him as you were from the day he was born. Its sad that they are not growing up together. Its sad that they are so far away and we can't share childhood stories about you with them. But KARMA is a bitch (you know what I mean). I hope someday we can see them and tell them stories about your growing up and your family life with a family that truly loves and misses you. The stories about when your mom and dad use to take all of you to Wildwood and all the memories we shared and yes, even the stories about me chasing the boys away from you and Elyse, (lol) and Ian's first car accident (first of many) after he took you home from the 8th floor and was too hardheaded to sleep at your house.

Its funny cause we talk about you soooooo much that Elyse said to me just the day before yesterday that Sebastian told her he misses you. He actually said, "Titi, I miss Janisa. And Adrian always wants to send trains to Steven.

You were a good, kind, generous person. I still have gifts I received from you on many occasions. Sad that stuff we take for granted in this life we cherish when more you move on to the next. You were a good mom, daughter, sister, niece, cousin, granddaughter and friend. Grandmom talks about you often too. She wants to pick up the phone to call you. We all loved you while you here on earth (even thru the good and the bad). Now you are our Gardian Angel and what a beautiful Angel you must make!!!!!! We all have memories of you and wish you were here. WE MISS YOU, WE LOVE YOU and WE WILL NEVER FORGET YOU.

*Loving you always,

“ Words cannot begin to describe the overwhelming sense of grief I have at this very moment. Evelyn, my heart hurts for you. I am in complete shock and cannot imagine the devastation you are feeling. Julius, I know Janisa was daddy's little girl always. She loved you both very much. You should both be so proud to have raised such a wonderful woman. And to little Julius, you were the sunshine in your mom's eyes. Her first born, her first love. She was so proud of the man you were becoming. You are a very strong young man. Eric is so very upset and doesn't even know what to say. He is here for you. Continue to be the best you can be. You have your own personal angel guiding you through life. Your mom will always be looking down smiling at you. I pray that you will all find peace in such a horrible situation. My prayers are with you every day. Life is unfair, and at this very moment seems almost unbearable to go on without such a wonderful mother, daughter, wife and friend. Please know that I will always be hear to support you.

Im sitting here in my room,looking at all of our pictures together.
Wondering why you couldn't be a part of my future.
Uncontrollable tears stream down my face.
Asking God why He took you from my life.
The pain I feel, I still need you here.
You were the one person to make everybody smile, "infectious"
You are a part of me and I am a part of you.
When you past away a piece of me died too.
I never knew how hard it was to lose someone you love until the day you went to heaven.

“ I only got know Janisa for a very short amount of time (10 years) but in that time the moments I shared with her I could always tell and enjoyed the feeling she left in the room with her presence. She was extremely bright and that's something to admire. Her smile will be missed, there's not a picture of her where she wasn't smiling one of my favorite quotes (a day without a smile is a day wasted) she surely lived it fully . . . This is truly a sad moment...devastating. . .But let's not ever say goodbye because goodbye means going away and going away means forgetting.

“ Janisa was a beautiful woman who lived her life fully, with determination, style and spunk! She had a radiant personality, and made everyone smile and laugh. She was academically and musically gifted, and never afraid of hard work. Janisa also shared her creative gifts through becoming a beautician. I am so impressed at how she could always reinvent herself, and face all the challenges of life with courage. She was a part of the U.S. Army, and then the police academy to help our country and her family. She also continued her collegiate pursuit in criminal justice. Yet when God wanted her to have children, she said yes, and created her family. Everything she did was for the love of her family. Now God has called you home, to share your beauty and talents in His Eternal Life. We have been blessed to know you for the short time you were here on Earth. Thank you for being such an inspiration to us all. Your Spirit will live on with us always! May God Bless You and the loving family and friends whose lives you have so dearly touched.

I vividly remember playing outside with Joanne & Priscilla and that lil toddler was up on the 2nd floor looking out the window and banging the crap out of the window--trying to get our attention. She was the cutest thing. Our families were very close. My dad was a very tall mean looking man & kids were scared of him. NOT JANISA!! My dad had nicknames for kids he liked and her name was "CHEEKS". Go figure! :-). When my dad passed, Evelyn & Julius were there for us and we were there for them when they needed us. Our families lived together for a short time and Janisa became a lil sister to me. Janisa & Melba (my sister) were inseparable for many many years. Melba's friends became Janisa's friends. Melba, Janisa, Neetu & Tara AKA "The 4 Musketeers" or "the international posse". They were a mess! They'd play, they'd laugh, they'd giggle, they'd share, they'd argue, they'd fight but at the end of the day, they had each other's back and they would ALWAYS make up. Melba and Janisa are each other's oldest and most dearest and bestest (if there were such a word) friend. Thats a true & genuine friendship.*

May she rest in peace.

“ SPLENDOUR IN THE GRASS by WILLIAM WADSWORTH

*What though the radiance which was once so bright
Be now forever taken from my sight,
Though nothing can bring back the hour
Of splendor in the grass, of glory in the flower,
We will grieve not, rather find Strength in what remains behind;
In the primal sympathy
Which having been must ever be;
In the soothing thoughts that spring
Out of human suffering;
In the faith that looks through death,
In years that bring the philosophic mind.*

*DEDICATED TO MY EMERALD
MOM*

“ Janisa was a light that shined brightly everywhere she stood. All who knew her, loved her. She had a huge and compassionate heart which attracted many to her. I loved her dearly and will miss her always.
Rest in Peace my sweet girl!!!! Titi Mili.

“ My heart aches at the thought of you. Everywhere I turn I see and hear your. I can hear you when you entered my door and would say "Hi Ti" and it was the most wonderful feeling. I will never forget you or the lifetimes of memories that we shared together as family. I finally got a chance to meet your wonderful children and I can only be proud of the mother that you became. I love you now, forever and always. You will never be forgotten. I know I will see you again because God cannot be so cruel to keep one of his best Angels to himself. Until then know that you are missed and will continue to be missed every day of our lives. I love you now, forever and always. Rest in piece my pretty girl until we meet again. Love,
Titi Angie

“ To my Beloved Mother, a woman of true purity and integrity. You're energy was always so positive and your actions, loving. You were blessed with an amazing intellect and impeccable beauty. I always admired how proud you were to be a mother, it made me proud to be your son. In this world, please guide me to live a good life and to make intelligent decisions. No matter what I will always be a brother to Steven, Anthony, and Nathaniel. I will set a good example and be a positive influence in their lives. May God grant you the grace and eternal salvation you deserve, for a mother like you only appears once in a lifetime. I will always love you, until my time has come. You're first born son, Julius Seth Romero

“ Your smile was contagious.. I love that fact that you would take time while working to acknowledge how much family meant to you! You were always so proud of your relationship with your brother Ceasar (Che) and always made it known how much you loved him! I'll miss our brief talks and all the laughs we had catching up just being silly! Not only were you beautiful on the outside you also had a beautiful soul and for that I will always admired you! Rest easy baby girl you'll forever be in our hearts!

*Love always your cuz

“ Not a lot of people know that Janisa had another brother but she did! Despite them trying to keep us apart , we still had a relationship and I'm so grateful that we did. We shared alot of memories and stories back and forth and I'm so happy that we did that. They can never take that away from us EVER! I will say goodbye to you here since it's clear that I'm not welcomed at ur funeral!!!! Sleep well little sister .... I will miss you and love you always! Your brother Caesar Romero

“ Janisa was always such an incredibly sweet and humble person. I was a kid a grade younger under her and she still always acknowledged me and were so nice to me. It wasn't until I got to Girls High that we developed a real life friendship and I will always remember and cherish the memories we shared. She was beautiful inside and out! I am so saddened by her passing and prayers go out to her family and beautiful kids. Heaven just gained another angel. Rest easy my love ?
