

Jarrot E. Nelson

December 10, 1951 - January 23, 2021

Jarrot Earl Nelson, Jr. of Westampton, New Jersey, was born on December 20 1951; the third child of the late Margaret Lawrence Nelson and Jarrot Earl Nelson, Sr. of Summerton, SC. Jarrot made his transition unexpectedly on Saturday, January 23, 2021. Prior to relocating, Jarrot was an educator in the Clarendon and Sumter School Districts.

Jarrot is survived by his son, James Alton (Giovanna) Ford; granddaughter, Tanjanique Ford; his beloved friend and former wife, Margaret Boger; three sisters, Maggie (Roger) Collins, Patricia (Freeman) Daniels, Sarah (Charles) Redmond; two brothers, George Johnson and Lee Roy(Beverly) Campbell. Special cousins, Margo Lee, Gloria Farmer, Sheila (Sidney) Perrin.

Jarrot loved his family unconditionally and cherished his relationships with all of his nephews, nieces, cousins and friends. He was notorious for his infectious smile and his kind and compassionate spirit; Jarrot's smile lit up a room, and he always brought fun and laughter with him. Family and friends will celebrate Jarrot's life at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Jarrot E. Nelson

September 09, 2022 at 01:27 AM

“ I will never forget Jarrot's warm spirit and gentle heart. Jarrot had a way of bringing me peace just by me being in his presence. As a friend of nearly 32 years, we no longer saw or spoke to each other everyday but, when we spoke, we always picked up where we left off. I will miss my dear friend!

Craig Conway - February 10, 2021 at 06:36 PM

Rest in Peace, may God be with you.

Herbert McClary - February 11, 2021 at 06:38 PM

Still in shock. Remembering the last time we spoke. You always had a way of not sweating the small stuff and putting me at ease. A very good friend and homeboy! I will miss you dearly. Rest in peace! Forever love, Brenda

Brenda Roberts - February 17, 2021 at 02:57 PM