“ Jeff had a great sense of humor, able to retort with sarcastic clever wit, a innate sense of style, he was a Beau Brummell all through school into his 20's. He was a music aficionado, appreciating Stones, Savoy Brown, John Mayall, bluesmen etc.. but also avant-garde musicians such as Zappa, Beefheart. His true calling might have been his vision and design talents, both interior and exterior. He always had the very most COOLEST bedrooms and gardens filled with the most interesting nick knacks, antiques, collectibles, and his plants were not only well placed but unique as well. He was never the loudest voice in the room, he left that to me, but he was much deeper and way more talented than what was visible at first glance. My friend for 56 years starting September 1966. Gimme Shelter!

“ If I was Mick, he was Charlie! Findiesen was Keith, Frenchy was Bill, Wowbag/Butch would have been Brian.
