

Jennifer A. Dias

November 21, 1979 - December 5, 2019

Jennifer A. Dias (Carroll) passed away after a sudden, brief illness on December 5th 2019.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa to Charles and Judith Carroll, Jenn was 40 years old. She is Beloved to many, particularly her family and friends in Delran, NJ where she lived most of her life.

Jenn was vibrant, funny, caring and kind, leaving an indelible mark on the world. A lover of nature, animals and fun, Jenn liked to surround herself with beauty. Always quick to laugh, her wry humor endeared her to many. Jenn always enjoyed music, from Celtic songs to Hip Hop, so diverse that one never knew what would come next on her playlists.

Above all else, Jennifer deeply loved and cherished her 3 children, who were the joy of her life. Not only a mother, she was truly their friend and co-hort in all things.

A Mother, Daughter, Sister and Aunt, Jenn is survived by her 3 children, Ryan (18) and twins, Logan and Sophia (13). A loved daughter of Charles and Judith, she was Sister to Chris (Michelle) and Beth (John), also the Aunt, Niece and Cousin to the extended Carroll family.

“ Jenn, I love to think of you when you were little. I can picture you at our family picnics, playing with all you cousins, asking for more desert (even though you could never finish it). We remember how pretty you looked on your First Holy Communion and how nervous you were. You even had trouble swallowing Jesus for the first time! We know how much you loved nature and the shore and every time we are on our "seashore" porch , we see the beautiful sculpture of the dolphin and turtle that you gave us. You grew into a strong, compassionate woman and we'll truly miss our beautiful God-daughter. Our only solace is that you're with the angels looking down on all those who love you. Love, Aunt Nancy and Uncle Jim.

“ My heart breaks for the Carroll/Dias family. Jenn was an amazing woman and i am lucky to have known and loved her. I will miss out chats that always managed to last hours. I will miss reminiscing about the 90's. I will miss having her as a parenting mentor. I could go on and on about what I will miss now that Jenn is gone, but the memories and love will never be gone.

“ Jenn I still cannot believe this. Our hearts are broken. You were such a beautiful, kind, compassionate woman. You always made me feel like part of the family. I'll miss when we would call each other to catch up. I could always count on you for some sound advise.
Jenn you would exude kindness! You never judged and always seen the good in everyone. Looking at your three beautiful children it is evident they were raised by one of God's finest.
We love you and promise to support your family in anyway possible. Thank you for some amazing memories and fun times.
Heaven has one rocking angel right now. Love you.

“ I will truly miss my holiday phone calls when Jenn would answer the phone and say, “Hi Uncle Tom, I knew it was you” as soon as the phone rang. We would catch up on things going on and our conversation always ended with “great talking to you” and “I love you” before she gave the phone to my brother. I will miss you.
Love, Uncle Tom

Cousins are forever friends and I'm so grateful for our big family because of that. Jen was so wonderful with her kids. A beautiful mom, sister, daughter, friend and cousin. “ Jenn is my best friend and love of my life. She will be forever in my heart. My favorite memories are holding Jenn's hand while we go out to eat, to the movies, or doing something fun with Logan and Sophia💕
