

Jessie Ciardullo

November 1, 1942 - October 1, 2020

Jessie Ciardullo, of Albrightsville, PA, and previously of Philadelphia, PA and Tabernacle, NJ, passed away peacefully on October 1, 2020. She was 77 years old.

Jessie was the beloved wife of the late Carman Ciardullo. Loving mother of Donna Caldwell, Frederick Ciardullo (Barbara), Michelle Lemasney (the late Robert), and Linette Goodchild (Vincent). Cherished sister of William Vogenitz (Choling) and the late Carl Binder (Lisa). Jessie is survived by 15 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren, extended family members and friends who will miss her dearly.

Jessie enjoyed the beach, especially Wildwood and Cape May. She loved observing lighthouses and began collecting them when she could no longer visit them. Some of her favorite trips were to Disney World with her family, and Ireland with her daughter. She never turned down fudge, bakery cakes, or a good sangria! In her younger years, Jessie was an active bowler and a dancer, specializing in ballerina and even teaching it. She also dabbled in tap, toe, jazz, and ballroom dancing. She even appeared on American Bandstand and had a few performances at Radio City Music Hall.

Relatives and friends are invited to gather at Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 N., on Friday October 9th, from 10 am to 11:30 am. Her service will be for family only, due to crowd restrictions, and will begin at 11:30 am.

Interment will follow in Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson, NJ. Facial coverings, crowd restrictions, and social distancing will be enforced at the funeral home and the cemetery.

“ Jessie and I worked at ADP together for many years. She was always full of life. Always willing to help others, even if it meant she would stay late. She had a laugh you could hear through the office. Always willing to do for anyone. Even though we have not seen each other in many years we stayed in contact. You will be missed my friend.
