

Jim Hines

May 26, 1956 - December 24, 2014

James H. Hines of Burlington City, NJ, passed away peacefully on December 24, 2014. Loving husband to Susan (nee Pallett). Beloved father to Jeremy (Megan). Dear son to Leon Hines (Elizabeth) and the late Beatrice Hines. Brother to Janine Hoffman (Jim), Robert Glenn (Evie) and the late Richard and Charles Hines.

Jim loved spending time with his family, who will hold his memory in their hearts forever. He met the love of his life in high school and they enjoyed 38 years of marriage and serving God together. He and his son bonded with their love of music, watching football, playing video games and brewing craft beer. He passionately spoke about the Kingdom of God and enjoyed playing worship music. His love of God was evident to all. He was a very humorous man who loved to tell jokes and funny stories. Their home was full of laughter. Jim was employed by Lourdes Medical Center of Burlington Co. as a respiratory therapist. He had many wonderful co-workers.

Friends and relatives are invited to Jim's Life Celebration on January 3rd at Snover Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 N. from 11:00am to 12:30pm followed by a Memorial Service at 12:30

“ It seems like yesterday when I first met Jim as a new respiratory therapist at Lourdes. He had just started working here- and we used to joke with him about his toolbelt he wore! He was a great co-worker and therapist. We sure do miss you. You are so sadly missed.

“ I worked with Jim in the ICU at LMCBC. Every time he worked with me, he would always sing to me "867-5309/ Jenny" by Tommy Tutone (since my name is Jennifer). He was one of the kindest co-workers I have ever encountered and was always willing to lend a hand with our patients. I will miss his smile and laugh and remember him always.

Love, Lee & Alice

...a few words from Lee:

"Jim was my best friend through high school and he was best man at our wedding 39 years ago. As teenagers we shared many great adventures. Good times to be sure. Some of my fondest memories were camping out many days and nights near Scales' Bridge, fishing, cooking catfish on the fire, playing old Grateful Dead songs, singing at the top of our lungs. Jim with his blues harp and harmonica, and me attempting to play guitar. Not a care in the world, Just sharing a million laughs. I picture him there now. Love you Bro - Rest In Peace."

“ Oh my, I am so sorry Sue. I just read about Jim. He was always a joy to be around and such a great part of Harvest when we were all there. He served the church and The Lord always. Such a great brother in The Lord and friend. He was one of the men that Sonny especially enjoyed being with and talking with. I know what you are going through, it is a very great loss to lose a husband and companion. If you need to talk I am here. I am sure Sonny and Jim will get together there in Heaven and share some time remembering all the good days at Harvest. Please accept my sincere sympathy to you and all your family.

“ There are so many memories, all of them Good. Worshiping and Singing with Jim were some of the happiest times of my life. He always gave words of wisdom, amazingly tender and warm hugs, and constantly made me laugh. One of my favorites was singing with him at Terry and Roberto's wedding. Now he is singing and dancing with the King. Love you Jim.
