

Joan G. Gianvito

April 10, 1942 - January 10, 2022

Joan G. Gianvito (nee Lane) passed away peacefully on Monday, January 10, 2022. Born at Cooper Hospital to John A. and Grace M. Lane, Joan was 79 years old. She was a resident of Medford for the past 47 years.

Beloved wife of 58 years to John R. Gianvito. Loving mother of Todd (Nicole) Gianvito, Lori Coffey and Brian (Donna) Gianvito. Cherished grandmother of Nolan Coffey, Ty Gianvito, Brynn Coffey, Ryan Gianvito, Austin Gianvito and Addison Gianvito.

Joan enjoyed trips to the beach, traveling the country and the world with her husband John, spending time with friends, especially spending time with her grandchildren and of course Johnny Mathis.

A gathering of family and friends will be held this Friday, January 14, 2022, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Givnish of Marlton Funeral Home, 398 East Main St., Marlton.

Her funeral service will follow at 1:00 p.m.

Entombment will take place at Park View Cemetery at Kirby's Mill, 25 Fostertown Rd., Medford.

Please note social distancing and masks are required.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to: The Alzheimer's Foundation of America

“ Joan was a member of an informal Rutgers-Camden Dinner Club along with (L. to R) Bill & Janet Strauss, Aurora & Fran Dickson, Mary and Jack Volk, Joan & John Gianvito. This was a fun group to be with, never lacking lots of laughs. We covered all subjects including the ever dangerous subject of politics. Joan always kept the discussions lively by inserting short, often feisty, "contributions". Our dinner meetings will never be the same without Joanie. We all will miss her dearly. Aurora and I offer our sincere condolences to our dear friend Rocky, his children Lisa, Todd and Brian and their families and may God Bless Joan.
