“ Our deepest sympathy to Ed, Edward, Pat and Beverly. We were neighbors in the early 70's and had such a wonderful relationship with the Haines family. Until recently we kept in touch through Christmas cards. May you feel the peace of our Lord surrounding you and the love of friends comfort you. John and Joyce Sarver

“ So sorry for your loss. I met Joan when I applied for a position at CSC. She was my first point of contact and I was required to take the standard tests which included typing. And I messed up royally, even though I'd been typing for over 20 years. Joan sat me down, looked me in the eye and said, "Take it again I know you can do this." I did and ended up working for CSC for 30 years. She was a beautiful, kind, loving person.
