“ To Jack's family, I was so sorry to learn of your loss. Jack and I worked together at First Pennsylvania Bank/CoreStates when we worked in the branch department. Jack was very friendly, sociable and well liked by all who got to know him. I also liked his humor and relaxed nature as to some of his many attributes. Jack will be missed. Joe Dorovich

“ Dear Kate and Family, Jack & I go way back to 1961 with First Pennsylvania Bank in the old "North Philadelphia Region" at, probably some of the worst areas of the bank's neighborhood locations in Philly. I still remember some of his clean, corny jokes (just like our TV friend Red Skeleton) and biting through that sweet smelling pipe of his (Captain Black tobacco) at those infamous regional meetings. I never heard a bad word from his mouth and he liked everyone; and everyone loved him as a true friend. What I especially admired about Jack was his "calmness" in everything that he did. He always took "one day at a time" and nothing to him was an employment crisis. Although he took his job seriously, God and his family ALWAYS came first. I've lost a true friend and I know, Kate, and your family has lost a dear sweet gentle man! The Lord be with you always, Jack! STAN KOCHANЕК
