John's passing has left us saddened. We remember all the great times celebrating birthdays, graduations, and holidays at the backyard parties, the firehouse dances, and all our trips together to Branson, Las Vegas, and the Caribbean cruises. We remained good friends for over 50 years, despite moving to Florida 25 years ago. Our hearts go out to LaVerne and the children. God speed John.

“ My love to all. I know I have a picture somewhere of John and my dad in full dress suits for Jockette and Cricket's "dog wedding" where they wore mismatched clothes and slicked their hair back. I remember that Donna and I were so mad that they were making fun of such an important event. He will be missed. It is at this time that family is so important and how wonderful it is that you are all there for each other. All my fondest thoughts and prayers for the tough days ahead. Hold each other up. Love, Nanette
