“ For my Noah and Natalie—I can only imagine how very special you both were to your grandpa! I know he is going to enjoy watching over the two of you from his new home above. To the family, I'm so sorry to hear of this loss. I trust that you will savor the time together, enjoying memories of Grandpa and rejoicing in the fact that he is no longer troubled by any earthly health problems—he is made whole!

“ Dear our guardian angel,
Distance was a barrier for you to be part of our daily life, but I enjoyed the little moments we spent together anytime we got together. Your jokes always made me laugh. I looked forward to visiting you again, but I didn't know you will be gone soon. Thanks for the quality of love and life you gave to my husband. You will always be my special hero. I will get to see you again someday in heaven. We will make sure your story and legacy keep on living in our memories and hearts forever. Please watch over and guide all of us everywhere and everything we do. May you rest in peace in god's hands and with Jesus. Energy cannot be destroyed and created. No goodbye and hope to see you again. Love you and miss you.

“ The gift of life is worth living, just to meet a man like him in this world. It would take me years to explain to you on all that he had to offer. He was a man of many hats, and the skill sets of those hats I have tried my hardest to assimilate. Maybe I adding a few hats of my own with his great support, but now I hope to honor him by passing on to the world and to the next generation his examples of greatness. His light now lives on in all who loved him, and I am proud and honored to call him Dad. Love little John
