“ jack

you will be missed my friend. You hung in there like a loose tooth and i was always impressed with your iron resolve. we will miss your infectious smile and laughter.

many a Sunday was spent under our gazebo, shooting the breeze and solving the problems of the world. I will always remember your teaching me the proper way to seed or re-seed my lawn. Those are some of my most cherished memories of our time together. Working in our yards ,side by side ,comparing notes!!!

you were easy to talk to and loved all the food i cooked (hahahahahahah)

I will always remember your kindness and generosity towards my son KC. He loved you as much as Jackie did . It's funny how quickly the years speed by and I was (am) glad you were a big part of my life for the time we were able to share together, " I Love YOU MAN" Rest in peace and tell Mary i said hi.
