“ Joe was such a gentleman and had so much knowledge; my husband and I so enjoyed our annual meeting with him to discuss our family's needs, goals and dreams. My husband was only 19 years old when he first met Joe and now 45 years later, we are reaping the benefits of what an intelligent man he was. May all the wonderful memories that you have of your amazing husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather bring a smile to your faces, peace to your minds and love to your hearts - he was a man that will never be forgotten.

“ My buddy Joe was simply the finest man I have ever met. He possessed the qualities we most admire....intelligence, a sense of humor, sincerity, business acumen, spirituality, loyalty and a loving heart, just to name a few. In the business world, many people trusted Joe with their life savings and hard earned assets. His skills, advice and counsel never let them down. The rest of the time Joe was the husband, father and friend we were all blessed to have with us for so many years. When God made Joe, He took a little extra time. HE really got it right. Rest in peace, my friend.
