

Judith M Raible

April 4, 1950 - December 25, 2025

Judith M. Raible, 75, passed away unexpectedly at her home on December 25, 2025. Born in St. Marys, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of the late Ernest Facchine and Catherine Facchine (nee Murphy). Judith was a devoted mother to Bryson Raible (Caryl) and Stephanie Raible (Francisco) and a loving “Mimi” to her cherished grandchildren, Nicholas and Cassandra, who were the true center of her world. She was the eldest of ten siblings and is survived by six.

Judith had a deep love for her pet rabbits and greatly enjoyed watching British comedies. She had a keen interest in architecture and design and especially loved Winterthur Museum in Delaware, which held a special place in her heart. Above all else, Judith treasured time spent with her children and grandchildren. Her warmth and dedication to being a mother and grandmother were the truest reflections of who she was, and her gentleness made her family feel unconditionally loved, supported, and seen. Thoughtful and kind, she fostered a sense of humor and a love of learning that will continue through her family.

A gathering of family and friends will be held on Saturday, January 3, 2026 from 1-3 pm at Givnish of Marlton, 398 East Main Street, Marlton, New Jersey. In lieu of flowers, donations in Judith’s memory may be made to Winterthur Museum for a named bench in their garden. Donations can be made ‘In memory of Judith M. “ We love you, Mom. We cannot wait to celebrate your life with loved ones this Saturday and to, hopefully soon, honor your memory with a named bench at Winterthur. It's never enough time, but we were so lucky to have you as our mom for all the years we did. We are so proud of all that you were, and your legacy will continue to live on through us.

My name is Barbara Donohue and I worked with Judy at Cooper Hospital/Record Room. Judy was so nice and fun...we could make her laugh so easily. About 4 of us girls from the record room would always join Dr. Alec Denbo for lunch or break...he always saved the big booth for us.

One day he asked Judy if she would babysit his pet when he and his family went on vacation. Judy said "yes ...what do you have a cat or dog," he said no I have a big box turtle...named Squirtle...I will bring him over with the magazine rack he sleeps under." We were all hysterical...Judy said I don't know anything about turtles. Judy was also attending Glassboro college at the time and they were sponsoring a trip to France, Spain and Morocco. 3 of us wanted to go ..we had to get special permission for all being on vacation at the same time! We had such a good time. I will never forget our trip! Judy and I talked on the phone over the years but could never see to get together..kids, work and life in general. I felt so sad to see Judy had passed

.she was smart, funny, always cared about animals and anyone down on their luck. RIP

I worked with Judy at DHCI until she retired. Judy was so kind and compassionate. She was also very smart and funny. I will always remember her fondly. She did make people feel special and seen. I am incredibly sorry for your loss. And I am very grateful that I had the opportunity to know her.
