“ Very saddened by this news. We remember talking with Kathleen at the McCormick family reunion in Philly years ago. What a wonderful cheerful person she was. Will miss her dearly. May God bless her entire family.

“ I last saw Kathy two summers ago in Ocean City when she stopped by for coffee and a visit. I hadn't seen her in many years but that didn't matter. She was as warm and full of love as if we had seen each other yesterday. Sitting around that table reminded me of all the late night visits years ago from Aunt Dolly around our dining room table. So much laughter and love. I'm grateful to have had the gift of knowing her. Sending love. -- Betsy McCormick

“ I met Kathy in Stone Harbor when she was 13 and I was 14. Our younger sisters had met on the beach and needed a big sister to walk them into town one evening. Kathy and I became fast friends and shared many summers down the shore. We didn't get together during the school year because we thought we lived far apart when we were only about 10 miles apart. My grandfather used to call her Miss Cinnamon Bun because she lived in Cinnaminson and she would just laugh. She introduced me to the singer John Davidson - Kathy always went for the clean cut types. Kathy was made to be a mother and grandmother and she was terrific at both. She was also a talented artist and I'll treasure the small painting she gave to me. I am at a loss for words of consolation for Tim, Elizabeth and Mary Kate. I will remember your Mom always, especially her laugh and her invitation to sit down and have a cup of coffee. My thoughts are with you all.

“ When I was a scared freshman coming to Georgian Court without a friend in the world, this wonderful woman by the name of Kathleen Horn came bouncing in. With a smile and the gift of gab, we joined forces and for forty-six years have been family. Kathy was a true friend and was always there for me. Her first loves were her Elizabeth Ann, Tim and Mary Kate and especially her LaLa title with Nora, Henry, Benjamin, Kate and Colin.
I will miss your smile Kathleen. May you fly with the angels and finally be at peace!

“ Kathy was a big part of our lives forever, it seemed. First at the many summers as neighbors in Stone Harbor. When the Brothers left North Dakota and went to Texas, Kathy was the first we called when we found out we would soon be joining them.
"Hello", she answered.
"Hello, neighbor!", we replied.
In a couple of months, Kathy, Bill and toddler Tim were sitting in our dining room in Clear Lake.
Over the next years, Kathy and her growing family made our life joyful. Membership at the Houston Yacht Club, the births of Elizabeth and Mary Kate, sails on the Pearson and then on our Catalina, all the product of an amazing friendship.
Bon voyage sweet Kathy. We will all miss you.
