“ When we are born, we cry and the world rejoices , when we die the world cries and we rejoice .

My heart is heavy with sympathy for you Bill, Chris, Brandon and Stephanie. Kathy was a beautiful person . I recall working with her in the huddle club. She was the one person you could rely on to get things done in her quiet steadfast way. Our thoughts are of you, our hearts are with you and our prayers are for you. Tears, talk and time with the grace of God will see you through this . Love to all, Lois and Biff Jones

“ Dear Bill,

My sincerest condolences to you, Chris, Brandon, Stefanie and their beautiful children and spouses and Kathy's sister Karen.

It has been a long, challenging journey but there is comfort in knowing that Kathy is truly at rest. Just as she was always surrounded in the love of her family while here on earth, she is now eternally surrounded in heaven in the love of Our Lord.

As we remain here, it's now Kathy's turn to pray for and watch over her family.

God's blessings to you all - Jeanette Martorano
