“ I didn't know Kayla very well. I did go to school with her but I wouldn't of considered us friends. I live in the building where she used to live, I can't stop thinking of her. I always had a crush on Kayla and probably jealously to. She is an original soul. You can just feel that. She had such good energy, and she still does! Her memory will live on and her presence is always close to her loved ones. My heart is with her family and friends. I hope everyone heals.

“ We were just acquaintances but she was so sweet. Told me how pretty I looked when I went up to her apartment one day before work and that small comment made me so happy I'll never forget. She was so sweet. Rest In Peace Babygirl I cant stop thinking about you.

“ My thoughts and prayers out to the Winkler family at this time. This is a senseless end to a young woman's life and will never be justified. Kayla you are beautiful and we will see you on the day. Killer ought to be given death as a penalty with no other option. Rest in peace Kayla. We need to view and change how we look at life and treat everyone, regardless of color or material wealth. Again, my love and sympathy to the Winkler family.

“ Truly lost for words and it's been a rough week since I received that phone call from your Dad on Sunday night. It's one of those calls you never want to receive and one you will never forget the time and place when receiving the call. Being so far away from you in NC has always been tough for me to stay on top of your world but we always seemed to pick up conversations via like we never skipped a beat. I will always be so proud of you for the fight you put into life and never gave up, times could be tough but you seemed to try and fight through it! I will forever be proud to be called your uncle and will never forget the times we got to visit with each other over the years.....gone way too soon but the impact you made on so many will never be forgotten! I love you Kayla, may you rest in peace and we meet again! Love, Uncle Erik “ Kayla, I still have your voice in my head from when you were a little girl. The way you sounded and the way you pronounced things as you were beginning to talk. You always had a cute little attitude..lol. I'll never forget it. I will cherish every moment we had together. You will always be in my heart. I love you my beautiful cousin. Til we meet again. I'll see you in heaven. Love, Amanda.

“ What I remember most about Kayla was her big brown eyes and sweet shy disposition. She wasn't here on earth very long but made quite a lasting impression on those who loved her. I remember having her and Deanna overnight for a sleepover when they were younger. We camped out in the family room downstairs. I'm hoping they enjoyed it as much as I did. I was so saddened to hear of her loss, I pray she is in a peaceful place now and is surrounded by many kittens and find solace in the fact we will all be together again.

“ Skittles,

That was the nickname I gave you when I first saw you at Moorestown High School because of your colored hair. It wasn't long before other people started to call you the nickname and you loved it. We were best friends in High School for a few years always hanging out in the mornings and at lunch. After High School we never really reached out to one another. One of the only final things you most recently said to me a few years back after High School was that you were proud seeing me successful and how you were working to get your life on track also. It meant a lot to me and I always believed that you could. Its hard to say goodbye, but I know we will meet again one day.

“ So many wonderful, funny, silly and loving memories are competing for space in my mind. One after another they bring a smile to my face or a tear to my eye. I remember that you and Deanna always wanted to wear my high heels as soon as I got home from work each day. You would walk around in the kitchen and made a “clunk, clunk, clunk” with each step. I remember when you and Deanna would rearrange the furniture in my doll house and you would always hide the little cat and dog and bet that I couldn’t find them. You fooled me quite a few times!

My heart is truly breaking and the only thing that eases my pain is knowing you are at peace.

Rest In Peace Kayla.

Love you forever,

Mom-Mom

“ There was nothing better than having Our Two beautiful Granddaughters living with us when they were very little girls. It was “special” to watch the way they played together, argued over who would help Pop Pop make a fire that day or night, or who got to the porch door of “their Sunroom” to meet Mom Mom at the door after her long work day!

So many Great Times that this Pop Pop will Never Forget.

“Kayla Bean”, you my sweet granddaughter are in a Better Place, and here’s hoping you remember those mornings on the way to school when you’d lookup and say “Pop Pop, do donuts, do donuts”.. I think Dee Dee remembers...Love You Always Kay Kay 🍦

“ I remember when Uncle Steve and Aunt Joanne brought Kayla and Deanna over to visit my parents house when they were little. They played together in the backyard and got pictures standing in front of the pond which was surrounded by flowers in bloom. It was a beautiful day and I remember Kayla had such a happy smile and kind, easygoing nature about her. RIP Kayla You will be missed

“ We are thinking of everyone. Kayla, you will be missed terribly. Kayla was always so sweet when we would come and visit. She would watch sponge bob with the boys when I wouldn't and play with them in the basement. Love to all!!

“ My beautiful Princess Boo. My sun, my moon, my stars, my earth.

*Deanna's first day of school, I was so upset, we were holding hands walking home. You stopped and looked up at me and said " Mommy, it's only a couple of hours. DD will be ok. " So intuitive at such a young age.
Forever at my side.*

“ As Kayla's 4th grade teacher, I was extremely shocked and so saddened to hear this news. It is such a loss. Kayla was such an easygoing and soft-spoken girl back in 2005-2006 when she was my student, and always had a kind word for everybody. I will always be haunted by what might have been when remembering this young life taken too soon. Rest Easy Kayla.

“ Kayla, trying to think of just one me worry or even just a few memories is hard when most of my memories involve you. Wherever I went you were with me. I miss you so much and I wish I could talk to you now. One of my favorite memories is when you used to hang your head from the top bunk and scare me lol. You will never ever be forgotten. I love you always and forever my sweet angel. My sunshine. ❤️❤️🙏🙏
