“ If I learned anything from Kevin over the years, it's without a doubt the fact that friendship and family is the most important thing in life. Kevin shared stories of his family everyday. One thing that stood out was he told me everyday during lunch he would drive down to the river and call his wife Joyce and chat. This man was truly a family man. Thank you for making an impact on my life. Rest In Peace Kev!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Kevin was one of the nicest people to work with. Every morning when I went to get my tea, he would say good morning to me. I will miss him coming into the office to review blanket quantities/testing with me. He always used to kneel down in front of my desk while we reviewed the numbers. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this most difficult time.

I hold many great childhood memories with my cousin Kevin as we dodged Uncle Vince and my Dad, though they always figured out our stunts. "Pirates" hijacking the boat at the shore, Camp Ockanickon together, our first leather jackets, working and learning together in Uncle Vince's old shop in Burlington. Farewell my friend. My thoughts, prayers for Kevin, and of course Joyce and family.
