“ It is very hard to think of the world without Loy. I have worked with her for the last seven years. She had a warm and loyal heart and will be sorely missed by the many who loved her.

“ I knew Loy through work at HIAS PA. She was a giving person, always ready to help others. She was a strong and caring woman. She overcame incredible challenges to be here in the US and accomplished so much including helping other immigrants get their status. She adored her kids and grandkids, sharing pictures and videos of them with her co-workers. When we had our holiday party, she would be there with the deep fryer ready to make the best spring rolls.

My deepest sympathy to Loy's family and friends. I count myself lucky to have known her and please know that she made this world a better place.
