

Lauren Gennello

May 7, 1985 - July 4, 2022

Lauren Gennello, age 37 passed away suddenly on July 4, 2022. She is survived by her mother Elizabeth Trigiani and stepfather Charles Trigiani, her father Richard Gennello and Sandy Meredith, brother Phillip Gennello, brother Jesse Trigiani, sister Brooke Trigiani and biological son Desmond Trigiani and step sister Ashley Meredith. Lauren had many aunts and uncles and many cousins.

Lauren maintained a surprising buoyancy and freshness in life. Happy to see people, glad to interact and always very kind. She championed the underdog and always found good in others no matter what. She had to be one of the strongest people you could ever meet. Everyone had their own story to tell about Lauren. Those who loved her saw her potential and carried a silent hope of goodness for her. Remember that goodness.

“ Lauren and I were best friends in our teenage/early adult years. We shared many fun times and she was with me during some of my hardest moments. She would give everything she had to those around her and was such a funny, joyful spirit. She often joined me on nights in college and never skipped a beat when the students asked her where she went to school (when she wasn't attending college), she replied, “clown college”. 😂
Even as our lives took separate paths, she always managed to pop back into my life every so often. No matter what was going on in her life, that funny joyful spirit never left her.
Hoping she is at peace and that her family finds some comfort knowing she brought happiness to those around her.

“ Hanging out with Lauren included a whole lot of laughing, smiling, and spontaneous adventures! I still have a memory bank of “Lauren Quotes for Life.” She was an amazing friend. She would help pick me up when my spirit was down. Prayers for her family and son!!

“ Lauren and I were friends when we were about 17. She had the biggest heart and always offered everyone we were hanging out with anything she had. I was always thinking of Lauren over the years and praying for her and her family. I remember when Lauren was pregnant with Desmond and she was told she was having a girl. We all went and bought baby girl clothes and baby dolls. Obviously we had to exchange everything for little Desmond when he was born. I'm praying for her family and I know Lauren is watching over you. ❤️

“ One of the fondest memories I have of Lauren is when she was a very small child she loved playing card games. She was very good at it and often would kick our butts. My condolences to my dearest friend Betsy all of her family. Positive vibes your way. Love Renee
