“ God Bless you Uncle Larry! When people would meet you they swore you and my Daddy where twins! I will never forget my dads 75th surprise Party and you walked in and everyone yelled SURPRISE! They could not believe you where Larry and not Harry! I know your at peace and have lots of loved ones waiting for you in heaven! May you feel that love for Eternity.

“ Larry was my neighbor and the first person I met when I moved to Newton's Landing. He would keep me company when I worked in my garden and I always enjoyed talking to him. Even though he was not well, he always had that fighting spirit and he always managed to laugh or smile. i will miss him and send my condolences to the family, and especially Pat, Grace and Tina. I am so sorry for your loss.
