

Dr. Leesui Wu

August 17, 1932 - November 8, 2021

Dr. Leesui Wu, a resident of Voorhees, passed away on November 8th at the age of 89. Leesui is the beloved husband 60 years of Liiyeh (Nee Kung) Wu. Loving father of Reggie, Ulysses, and Lavinia, and their respective spouses Lisa, Amy, and Martin, and son Constantine (deceased). Grandfather "Yeh-yeh" of Ashley, Brandon, Eddie, Quin, and Kailen. He had 4 brothers and 4 sisters. Surviving brother Andrew Leeyeun Wu, sister-in-law Lynn Yuehkuai Wu, niece Leslie, and nephew Christopher. Surviving sisters Tsuiyuen and Tsuimei in Taiwan.

He was born and raised in Penghu, Taiwan. He received his engineering degree from Georgia Tech and then his PhD in electrical engineering from the University of Pennsylvania. He and Liiyeh had known about each other in Taiwan, but officially met in the states. He worked for RCA and then Rockwell International. He loved cooking, travelling, reading, listening to music, swimming, and spending time with his kids and their spouses and his grandkids.

Relatives and friends are invited to Leesui's Life Celebration Saturday, November 20th with a reception starting at 10:00 am, followed by his memorial service at 11:00 am, all located at the Protestant Community Church - Cathedral of the Woods, in Medford Lakes, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Alzheimer's Foundation of America. (Alzfdn.org)

“ I am saddened today to learn that my friend Lee has passed. He, Liiyeah and I were early morning swimming compatriots at our community pool in Voorhees. He was always a joy to be around. His love and enthusiasm for life and the small things were a lesson to me.

I will miss him and think of him often.
