“ I'm late to write this. Leila was a significant person for me. Through her intelligence and kindness she demonstrated the true mind of a poet. When I moved to Massachusetts we lost touch, but I did try to visit her on my occasional jaunts to Philly. One of the first things Leila told me to always ask, "What's the question?" If you know what people want you'll know who they are. Hail Leila!

“ *My sympathies and condolences to a woman i did not get a chance to know. I am sure that her son Lance will help me get to know her better. From what I have heard she was a wonderful woman and a beautiful woman to young for the Lord to take. But the Lord has his reasons for what he does. Dear Lord please watch over Lance and make sure he his taken care by friends when needed we all need friends. Again my sincerest sympathies and condelences to Leila Engelhardt .
