“ Poppy,

I can't express how heartbroken I am that I will not get to see or talk to you anymore. You were more than a grandfather to me, you were a second father. Whenever I needed you, you were there for me - no questions asked, whatever I needed no matter how big or small. You are a big reason why I am a strong person today. You taught me so many life lessons whether I wanted to believe you or not, you were always right. I will miss pinching your cheeks and opening presents at Christmas with you - you had to shake every present and guess before you opened each present. There are so many other things that I will miss. You are my role model, my rock and my heart. You are an amazing person and I will miss you everyday. You are one the of best men I will ever know. My life will never be the same without you, I love you more than words can express.

Awe Rachelle. You made me cry. Christmas will never be the same. We all loved Poppy. I love you honey. - Mom

“ My best friend... my rock... my mentor. How do I go on without you, dad? I loved you more than life. You were always there for me. You taught me right from wrong. You helped me when I needed it. Remember when you use to stop by and say "I'm fat... don't tell mom". It meant you won money in a fishing tournament and you would share some with me to buy myself something nice. You wanted only the best for me, and, whenever possible, you provided it. I will miss you every day of my life. You loved animals and taught me how important it was to love them. You wouldn't even kill a spider. You always told me to adopt and save a life. Remember?

You are peaceful now, dad. As much as I didn't want you to leave me, I know that it is better... and you're with mom now. Thank you for giving me such a wonderful life, for helping me with my business and for loving all of the dinners I made for you!! I always enjoyed making you smile, too, as much as I know you enjoyed making me smile. I love you dad. I think you know that. I keep remembering your last words to me... and that gets my through the day. Remember, dad? You said "I love you." And I love you too. Until I see you again, watch down on me, okay? I know you will. - Kathie
