

Lidzca L. Dakuginow

August 7, 1950 - March 2, 2020

Lidzca Lidge Dakuginow, a resident of Philadelphia, passed away at Samaritan Hospice on Monday, March 2, 2020 surrounded by his family. Dear son of the late Nikolai and Gila Dakuginow. He is survived by brother and sister-in-law, Theodore and Manya Dakuginow, brother Bemba Dakuginow, his sister and brother-in-law, Udbala and Alta Buruschkin, brother Dschaba Dakuginow, sister-in-law Elena Dakuginow and predeceased by his brother Sary Dakuginow and sister Nidschima Nuni Kukenowa. He was the beloved Uncle Litz to his nephews, nieces, great-nephews and great-nieces. A loyal Philadelphia sports fan, he lived to see a Phillies World Series Championship and an Eagles Super Bowl Championship (Go Birds!). He was a faithful, hard-working man for over 25 years at 32 BJ SEIU Worker's Union. He loved his family and will be most remembered for his kind and generous soul. He will forever be in his family's hearts. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Drepung Goman Monastery <https://www.drepunggomang.org/donate/107-donate-drepung-gomang-monastery>. Friends are invited to his funeral service at 11AM, Friday, March 6, 2020 at Givnish's of Maple Shade, 600 E. Main Street. Interment will follow at St. Vladimir's Cemetery, 316 Cassville Rd. Jackson NJ. Religious services will be on Saturday, March 14 at 12PM at the Nitsan Choephel Ling Buddhist Temple 186 West 6th Street, Howell, NJ 07731. “ For all the great things you did from getting Chinese food every Friday, getting wrestling ice cream bars for Nikolai, and just being there as a big brother. Your kind heart towards Nina, the fun we had at the racetrack. We will miss you but will never forget you, you will forever remain in our hearts. You will be in great company up there in heaven. Rest In Peace Litz, I love you...
