“ So tremendously heartbreaking. Lily and Natalie went with their mom, Kathleen and myself to Pittsburgh for a Secular Franciscan conference and attend the Youth gathering. It was a wonderful time with Lily and Natalie experiencing the love of God the Father, Jesus Christ and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Though the steps on her life's journey were not always the easiest or even the best, the light of this love was planted deep in her heart. This light rekindled in her and she wanted to continue her journey with God and share it with others. May her light shine brightly as she is united with Christ and her mom for all eternity.
