

Linda E. Garrabrant

December 6, 1942 - June 10, 2023

Linda E. Garrabrant (nee Palmer), 75, of Marlton, NJ, passed away on June 10, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love and devotion. She was the cherished wife of Bradley Garrabrant and the adored mother of Marc DiBartolomeo (Erica) of New Jersey, Laurel Pickering (Fahad Malik) of Florida, and the late Kent Garrabrant. Linda was also a beloved grandmother to Stella Maryann DiBartolomeo, Dean Alshehabi, Joseph Alshehabi, Alex Malik, and Max Malik. She is survived by her brothers, Mark Palmer (Kathy) of California and Craig Palmer (Cassa) of Arizona, and will be greatly missed by numerous friends and extended family members.

Linda's journey began in Wilmington, DE, where she grew up and developed a passion for education. She pursued her dreams at the University of Delaware, earning her bachelor's degree. Linda embarked on her career as a teacher, nurturing young minds before transitioning to become a paralegal in Moorestown, NJ. She was a dedicated professional who excelled in her field. Outside of her work, Linda found joy in the simple pleasures of life. She cherished her time with family in Stone Harbor, NJ, creating treasured memories by the shore. A voracious reader, Linda indulged in mystery novels that captivated her imagination. Her culinary skills and green thumb were evident in her love for cooking and gardening, where she poured her heart and creativity into each endeavor. However, above all, Linda's devotion to her role as a wife, mother, and grandmother defined her character and touched the lives of those around her.

The services to honor Linda's memory will be announced at a later date, providing an opportunity for loved ones to gather and pay their respects.
