“ Today's the day we bid adieu. A man we love called "Uncle Lou". Heart of gold and pockets wide he chose Aunt Jean to be his bride. Life went on and they had children; one called Tom, the other Susan. Four plus two is half a dozen, our families close you are our cousin. Joanne and Donna, then Gary, Dean wouldn't be cousins without Aunt Jean! Our hearts are sad, you've lost your dad but we know he's now in heaven. Yet trumpets blew! Loud voices sang!! No doubt the quite procession. Be still, your hearts, an angel called! 'Tis time your dad depart. (See you on the other side of the River Jordan, Uncle Lou.) ❤️ Love, the Molz nieces and nephews.

“ What a great man! Always smiling! A loving husband, father, friend and incredible grandfather. I always said if I ever have grandkids, I hope I'm as great of a grandpop as Lou was. I am so honored to have had you in my life as a friend... You are already missed and till we meet again, look over all of us from above. Jim Curry
