

Lucille J. King

August 15, 1940 - November 8, 2021

Lucille “Lucy” King, age 81, passed away on November 8, 2021.

She was the owner and talent agent for Models on the Move in Cherry Hill, NJ. She devoted her life to others and enjoyed working with individuals from all walks of life, as well as spending time with family. She got great joy from making others happy and participating in various foundations.

She was preceded in death by her husband and love of her life, William “Bill” King. She leaves behind her daughter, Patricia (Joseph) Kurtz; two granddaughters, Christina (Stephen) Skipton, and Kimberly Kurtz; sister, Anita, as well as many cousins, nieces, nephews, life long friends, and talent agency members. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

“ I miss Lucy and her unending belief in me and support in all that I do. We met in 1998 when I coached FAMILY VALUES;THE MOB AND THE MOVIES. Lucy had been casting agent. May her spirit lift everyone she encounters in heaven and recognize her love of the Acting ARTS! Lucy is an Award Winning artistic heroine in all ways! I will keep you in my heart as I continue on my journey here! Nina Murano
