

Lucy Jane Pensabene

March 7, 1937 - February 4, 2022

Lucy Jane Pensabene (née Tonella), of Marlton, NJ, passed away unexpectedly on February 4, 2022, due to complications from an aortic valve replacement procedure. Born in Camden, NJ to the late Jack and Ersilia Tonella (née Meloni), she was 84 years old.

Lucy was the beloved mother of Richard A. Pensabene (Tami) of Telford, PA, and Cynthia A. Headen (Steve) of Ann Arbor, MI; cherished grandmom of Ashley Renae and Joshua Cole Headen. Lucy is survived by many extended family members and friends who will miss her dearly.

Lucy had a passion for getting fancied up to go out dancing, especially to the music of Elvis “The King” Presley. She was an avid reader of mystery and fiction books going through one or two books a month. She also liked to travel, both domestically and internationally, but Graceland (home of The King) was by far her favorite destination.

Relatives and friends are invited to gather at Givnish of Marlton, 398 East Main Street, on Friday, February 11th from 10:30 am to 11:30 am. “ Lucy, you were my friend for many years - we shared many memories of the time when we were coworkers and throughout all of these years, we kept in contact with each other, comforted each other and laughed together

I shall miss you and you will always have a special place in my heart. Rest in peace, Lucy.

“ The Dash by Linda Ellis

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on her tombstone from the beginning...to the end. He noted that first came the date of her birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all...was the dash between those years. For that dash represents all the time that she spent alive on earth and now only those who loved her know what that little line is worth. For it matters not, how much we own, the cars...the house...the cash. What matters is how we live and love...and how we spend our dash. So think about this long and hard; are there things you's like to change? For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged. If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real...and always try to understand the way other people feel. And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives...like we've never loved before. If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile...remembering that this special dash might only last a little while. So when your eulogy is being read...with your life's actions to rehash...would you be proud of the things they say...about how you spent your dash?

Lucy lived her dash. She was a high school letterwoman, working woman, mother, grandmother, traveler and dancer. Thanks for allowing me to become your friend, Lucy! I know you are dancing like no one is watching, reconnecting with friends and loved ones including your brother, sisters, parents and grandparents. Enjoy a concert by "The King" and be our guardian angel. Love you!
