“ Words cannot describe how sorry we are that Maren is not with us anymore. Our deepest sympathies to all of you--Max, Michy, Michael, John, Gretchen and all the grandchildren. Our families have been friends for over 50 years with all the stories and memories that go along with those years--Friends from Delran through our moves to Cinnaminson and Moorestown, our days at The Gamut and beyond. Maren was full of life, love, sense of adventure, love of family & friends, generosity, style & good taste, love of entertaining, amazing strength of mind and character, and a sense of humor that is all uniquely Maren. She coined many phrases that are remembered--"slap your self on the shoulder and keep going." "Do what you can today! Don't wait for tomorrow." "Stick up for yourself and don't let anyone push you around!" These are a few...that I remember--and often say to myself and think of her. She will be missed, but never forgotten...

“ Dear Max, Michael and Michy,

I was very sad to hear of Maren's passing. My friendship with Maren was a very warm one which developed on the cold slopes of St. Sauveur and Tremblant. I much appreciated her company. I enjoyed our conversations on travel, music and so many other subjects.

Her hospitality was very well known and stopping at the condo on hill 68 was always a pleasure.

My most sincere sympathy to you all.

“ Maren. It is hard to find words to express my gratitude for all the happiness and good moments that she brought to my life while having the pleasure of working for her.
She had a lot of style and was always happy and willing to help everyone
Even by being a simple worker, she always treated me very well. It was a pleasure to be part of her life somehow. She had a large heart and I'll always be thankful to her and keep her alive in my heart. Our prayers go to Max and the whole family.

this beautiful woman led a life of giving...in every way, and without any expectations at all in return. she treated everyone with kindness, and was a perfect reflection of Jesus' love for all of us. I was blessed to have her hold such a special place in my life, and in the lives of my children, who all adore and admire her. Her absence will leave a huge emptiness that can only be filled by all the memories of the love she so easily shared with all of us. I will never ever forget her words of wisdom, as she had many, and i find myself frequently quoting her. she was brilliant on every level, in her smile, her kindness, her intelligence and wisdom, her love...she was a beautiful soul. Heaven has gained an incredible angel, and i pray that she may always feel how much she is loved, even from heaven. May God Bless Max, Michy, Michael, John, Gretchen, all her beautiful grandchildren, and may all the promises of heaven belong to this elegant angel. I love you Tante Maren, with all my heart and soul....xoxox love,

“ *Maren, you will be missed.
The room always came to life when you entered and conversations were never dull no matter which subject. I remember the skiing and après-skiing we did together, always fun.
Your great interest in all members of the family was sincere and your generosity appreciated.
Our family gatherings won't be the same without you but in memories you will always be among us.
We are sad you left us so soon and our condolences go to Max, Michael and Michy and their children.
With love always,
Elisabeth and Eric*

Maren you were pure joy and light to all who were blessed to know you. Your example of kindness, class and integrity has led the way for many, and will continue to be a source to all that were privileged to know you. Thank you, and your beautiful family for many wonderful memories on the soccer field.. My Mother always said "There was no lovelier hostess than Maren Reibold.." It always made us smile that two of you shared the same birthday.. Rest in peace beautiful, lovely person. We know you are resting with God's finest tier of angels.. Love and prayers for Max*, Michael* and Michy* and their families. The Mansdoerfers
