“ Marg,

On this beautiful day, your birthday, I want to thank you for the gifts of joy & love that you've brought to me and our entire family. We all knew from the moment that John met you how special you are.

Loving you came easy for us. We are truly blessed.

As time goes by we will always remember the lessons you taught us and the way you have touched our hearts forever. I pray that we can be as courageous & brave as you in our life journey as you have shown us in yours.

I'd like to dedicate this song to you because of its special meaning it had between you and me. Its significance is so ironic.

I look to the heavens and I see you smile today and Forever Young.

Love your sister-in-law Terry Miller

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam, And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home. Be courageous and be brave, and in my heart you'll always stay

Forever Young

Forever Young

And when you finally fly away, I'll be hoping that I served you well, For all the wisdom of a lifetime. no one can ever tell, But whatever road you choose, I'm right behind you win or lose,

Forever Young

Forever Young

For forever young

“ Margaret was always so bright and cheerful even when it appeared she was under a lot of pressure or stress. I will always remember and cherish the times I saw her on christmas and thanksgiving. May her glowing demeanor shine upon those in the afterlife and down upon those she left too soon, may her love always be remembered by those lives she touched.

“ Such a wonderful person that will be deeply missed in the community. I spent most of my childhood at the Frentzen household and Mrs. Frentzen was always such a positive, loving, and sincere person. I have always been impressed that every year she found the time to volunteer for the St. Charles carnival. Truly an exceptional mother, wife, neighbor, and friend. The world lost a great woman and my heart goes out to the Frentzen family.

“ I will miss sister-in-law as long as i live. Margaret welcomed me into the family with open arms. Maybe i didnt tell her enough how much i admired her as a wife and mother but i can only hope she knew. My daughter is right about her laugh and smile. I can see her right now. John and the boys my heart goes out to all of you. No one can make this right. God has a plan for your wife and your mother even though we cant understand as we grieve for this beautiful women . When i last saw Margaret i told her that i would see her again and i pray that its true.
God bless Margaret.

“ There are no words to explain how hard this is, I'm still in shock. Aunt Margaret was one of a kind, loving, caring, hard working, and so many more great qualities. Her smile and laugh was infectious. She was blessed with a life long husband, who was by her side as much as he possibly could. Their love will live on. Also, two amazing sons that will succeed in the future because they had a wonderful mother. Aunt Margaret will be missed very much, many things will be difficult without her. Hope everyone leans on each other for love & support to help ease the pain of this unbearable loss. RIP. Love always, Amy Groff

“ There are many qualities that come immediately to mind when I think of Margo. Her love for her family - her world revolved around those three men in your life. Her positive attitude about everything. Her kindness to everyone. The world would be a better place if we all had a little bit of her generosity. Margo, I wish I had another chance to tell you how much I respected you as a mother and wife. You will be missed deeply.
